What's unique about your business?

Mr. Porter prides himself in satisfying the customer. His business has been primarily word of mouth. His close involvement with every project shows. Nate also gives back to the community. He is involved in the renovation of the Salvation Army buildings on Grand Avenue, headed by Steve Kesler of the HBA of NWCO. He has taken on the roofing portion of the renovation with materials being donated by Fowler and Peth, and labor donated by John of Blue Mountain Roofing. He has giving back to the community where he makes his living and serving others are an important parts of his business.

How do you benefit from being a member of the Housing and Building Association of Northwestern Colorado?

The HBA of NWCO keeps Mr. Porter up to speed on the latest rules and regulations, and future changes of the building codes. The HBA of NWCO also offers many informative classes on the future of building energy efficient homes.
